23 January 2027	Non-theme Dance group and Final day

General Guidelines:

- Each Deanery should ensure that all their students participate in a minimum of one event.
- The students are allowed to participate in as many events as they are interested in participating, depending on the schedule and timings of the events.
- In this edition of Blossoms, the University will be divided into 10 teams in the form of deaneries.
- The teams are as follows:
    1. Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Psychological Sciences (Team Scarlet - Red colour)
    2. Sciences (Team Onyx - White colour)
    3. Department of Commerce (Team Obsidian - Purple colour)
    4. Management studies with Hotel Management (Team Jade - Green colour)
    5. Law (Team Coral - Pink colour)
    6. Christ University Institute of Management

7. Department of Professional Studies (Team Azure - Light Blue colour)
8. Bangalore Kengeri Campus
9. Bangalore Yeshwanthpur Campus
10. Bangalore BGR Campus

- Blossoms will be conducted in Two Rounds:

I. Intra-Deanery: Only Central Campus Deaneries will be part of the competition. 7 Deaneries will be part of this competition. This will have a separate Trophy - 'We the Best' - for Organizing Blossom events in the Best Way.

1. Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences and Psychological Sciences
2. Sciences
3. Commerce
4. Management studies with Hotel Management
5. School of Law
6. Christ University Institute of Management
7. Department of Professional Studies

Other Bangalore Campuses may conduct their own Intra Deanery Competition and send the winners for the Finals scheduled in January.

II. Inter-Deanery: Winners of Central Campus Deaneries and other Bangalore Campuses will participate in the Overall Trophy for Blossoms

- The events are divided into 4 categories for this edition of Blossoms

1. ART Events
2. LITERARY Events
3. STAGE Events
4. THEATRE Events

- Deanery event coordinators must ensure there is equal participation in every event.
- Class teachers would play a key role in ensuring that all students of their class participate in at least one relevant event.
- Students absent for their assigned event must participate in any of the other following events to ensure 100% participation from the class.

- The total points for BLOSSOMS at the Intra-Deanery level is 600 Points (only for Central campus)
    - A. Strategy for Organizing events: 320 points
    - B. Strategy for Participation in the events: 280 points.
        Event-wise participation point distribution:
        - ❖ Art events carry 7 points each →10 x 7 = 70 Points
        - ❖ Literary events carry 7.5 points each →8 x 7.5 = 60 Points
        - ❖ Theatre and Stage Events carry 10 points each →15 x 10 = 150 Points

- All Inter-Deanery Finals are held in January along with inter collegiate fest, In-Bloom 2027.
- The decision of the Team/Deanery Event coordinator is final for the intra-deanery events.
- Two/Three winning teams/individuals per event from each of the 10 deanery teams will be sent for the finals (exact number for finals is mentioned along with each event)
- As there are multiple participation opportunities, the deanery coordinators are requested to send the deanery contingents for each event according to the schedule and timing of the final event.
- Changes in schedule, if necessary, need to be ratified with the SWO.
- The decision of the SWO is final for the inter-deanery events.
- For sound equipment and booking of drum kits for Indian Music and Western Electrics can be done by emailing the Music Coordinator of SWO (kindly cc SWO as well), in advance of the event date. You are advised to have Indian Music and Western Electric one after the other in the same venue on the same day, for logistical ease.
- University Jam Room will not be given to any deanery for rehearsals, to ensure fairness.
- Permission to practice for dance and theatre events across the campus is to be taken from the SWO office by submitting the application 15 days in advance from the date of the respective event.
- Each Deanery Team will be allotted Rs. 40,000/- for all the expenditure till the finals of Blossoms.

A. Strategy for Organisation

Duration of all events to be conducted from 12 November, 2026 to 16 January, 2027.

Strategy categories

1. Blog/Webpage
2. Social Media
3. Publicity
4. Event organization
5. Certification
6. Documentation
7. Participation (for organisation and volunteering)

1. Blog/Website (20 points)
    - Deanery blog/website must be launched by 10 November, 2026, i.e. before the commencement of Blossoms events.
    - Content apart from design and other details should contain:
        - What the events are and what is the maximum number of students per event/category.
        - Who is the faculty coordinator for each event and how the student/s with the right aptitude can opt for the event through their class teacher.
        - When the events are scheduled (venue, time, and date of each event)
        - Why students should participate for the event allotted by the deanery
        - Where can students seek guidance regarding Blossoms events of the Deanery.

    - Comments and responses can be given through a separate email ID created for this purpose and should not be posted for public viewing. Eg. www.christblossoms.wordpress.com
    - The schedule of inter-deanery finals of each event must also be posted on the blog. This information will be given to you in advance by the SWO.
    - Results of each event must also be posted as and when the events are over. Dates for certificate distribution must also be mentioned.

2. Social Media (40 points)
    - Deaneries should set up a social media page for updating content about their Blossoms' events.
    - The page can be named creatively or formally (Eg. @dps_blossoms or @heregoes_dpsblossoms).
    - Relevant, creative, and consistent posts, stories, reels, or interactives, could be done on the page throughout Blossoms Season.
    - Volume of content being posted and the engagement level will be monitored regularly.

3. Publicity (50)
    - Publicity is measured by promotional activities, visibility of paraphernalia as well as audience turn-out during events. Each deanery publicizes the event through whatever publicity material they wish to use. For example - banners, posters, flyers, street plays, dances, and other campaigns during lunch hours or after college hours, can be used.
    - Please note: Use of Thermocol/Polystyrene is banned at CHRIST and will not be entertained in any campuses of CHRIST.

4. Event organization (100 points)
    - The deanery needs to ensure maximum strength of audience for stage and theater events.

- Class teachers must ensure that their entire class participates in the right event/s in consultation with the event coordinators. The format provided should ensure that event coordinators get all the required information from each class to collate all data.
- Attendance of each registered student must be accounted for to ensure full participation.
- The deans, HODs, and teachers, must ensure 25% of the total number of students from the deanery in each of the four categories (Art, Lit, Stage & Theatre). This can be done by allotting a team of teachers to coordinate between departments and classes, to ensure equal distribution among events categories.
- Event faculty members ensure booking of venues, adequate participation, judges, and writing of certificates.
- Non-participatory students of one set of events can be used as volunteers for other events.

5. Certification (30 points)

- Blossoms Certification Day for the Deanery must be ensured.
- The writing/signing of certificates and announcement of results on the deanery Certification day must be organized.
- Importance is also given to how the certification ceremony is made a special occasion for all students to receive the certificates from the respective event co-coordinators.
- eCertificates can be provided to all the participants and a hard copy can be issued for the winners.

6. Documentation (20 Points)

- Every deanery teams are requested to maintain records like participant per event, registration details, absentees list, result sheets, judges list etc which will be checked by the SWO office at the Intra level evaluation time.
- Prepare an excel sheet according to class wise and update every student’s participation in the events and mail it to SWO.
- Please allot two student coordinators to update the participation list class wise. These student coordinators will submit the soft copy of the participation list to SWO and the participation certificates will be printed accordingly

7. Participation (60 Points)

- Apart from participation in all the events, participation in volunteering and organising the events, including Inaugurations, Processions, Dance Extravaganza etc. will be given points.
- This includes supporting (turning up and cheering for) the Deanery in every Blossoms event.
- 100 percent participation is expected from each deanery team.
- Faculty members and Class teachers' presence and support during the events is also noted.
